

ARCHDIOCESE OF DENVER

OFFICE OF THE ARCHBISHOP

January 19, 2016

Prot. N. 2016-0032 A

To whom it may concern,

I would like to acknowledge the good work being done by Mr. Paul Winkler through his apostolate, Attollo, which draws its name from the Latin word that means “to lift up.”

The goal of Attollo is to lift up men and women at all levels of the business world by forming and encouraging Catholic executives and business owners to pursue excellence in every area of their life. Paul does this by equipping them with the tools to integrate the conflicting demands of their faith, work and family so they are able to live a life of authenticity.

The Attollo model involves a monthly group education and business planning meeting and one-on-one coaching sessions outside of group meetings to check on progress and address roadblocks to success.

Both the Chancellor and Executive Director of Hispanic Ministries participated in the December 2015 monthly session of Attollo and found it to be very useful for their ministries.

In addition to their strong recommendations, I add my own, and encourage parishes, clergy and Catholic business men and women to welcome and take advantage of the services offered by Attollo.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

A handwritten signature in black ink, reading "Samuel J. Aquila".

Most Reverend Samuel J. Aquila, S.T.L.
Archbishop of Denver